BOY FOUND $6,000 UNDER SIDEWALK

PORTION OF LOOT OF MINERAL POINT BANK RECOVERED.

Two Separate Packages Amounting in All to $8,000—The Stuff Was Found Near the Boarding Place of Stewart Jelliff, Under Suspicion of Being the Robber.

Mineral Point, Wis., June 4.—The bank robbers of the First National Bank did not get away with all the money, and $8,000 of the $25,000 stolen has been recovered. It was found under a sidewalk.

Last night a boy while walking along the street near the brewery, saw the top of a bag protruding from under the walk. He was going to pass it by but thought that he would investigate. He dragged it out and found $2,000. It was one of the bags which was taken from the bank. He immediately reported the find to the authorities.

The news of the find set all of the small boys in the city on the scent for more of the money, and this morning a boy named Kiefer found another bag of the plunder secreted under the sidewalk in front of the Cummings residence. It was taken to the bank and $6,000 in gold counted out.

The fact that $8,000, which is nearly one-third of the amount stolen, has been recovered leads the detectives who are working on the case to the belief that the money was divided into three parts and that one of the thieves hid his share of the plunder, confident he could return for it and not be discovered.

Near where the money was found there was also found some nitro-glycerine and some skeleton keys.

Where the money was found is near the former boarding place of Stewart Jelliff, who is held under suspicion of having been connected with the theft.

HICHBORN-BLAINE WEDDING TODAY

The Bride Has Been the Belle of Washington Society for Two or Three Years Past.

Washington, June 4.—Members of two of America's foremost families were united in marriage at Washington today. The bride is Miss Martha Hichborn, daughter of Admiral Hichborn, and the groom James G. Blaine, son of the great statesman. The ceremony was performed at the home of the bride's parents by the Rev. Dr. Radcliffe of the New York avenue church. The honeymoon will be spent in Europe.

Miss Hichborn has been the belle of Washington society for two or three years past. Her marriage with Mr. Blaine was for a time opposed by her family, presumably for the reason that Mr. Blaine was divorced from his first wife. The young woman insisted upon having her own way, however, and her parents finally relented and gave their consent.

Mr. Blaine, after his return from Hawaii, entered newspaper work in Washington. He is credited with making about $100,000 in the stock market recently. After three months' trip abroad Mr. and Mrs. Blaine will return to Washington, which will be their permanent residence.

TAX COMMISSION WARNS ASSESSORS

ARREST WILL SPEEDILY FOLLOW FRAUD OF ANY KIND.

The Statutes in Relation to Assessments Must Be Carefully and Conscientiously Complied With—They Provide for the Taking of a Full Valuation.

Madison, Wis., June 4.—The State Tax commission is determined to have all property in the state assessed at its full valuation and warns assessors that they will be promptly prosecuted if the statutes are not carefully and conscientiously complied with. The commission has prepared and will in a few days send out a pamphlet of instructions to the 1,500 assessors of the state. The pamphlet is of state wide importance inasmuch as it outlines the general policy of the state tax commission. The instructions close with this significant paragraph:

"The laws enacted by the legislature of 1901, especially those imposing severe penalties upon assessing officers for willful violation of official duty, plainly indicate that the people through their representatives insist that such violations of law as have heretofore been customary or occasional, particularly the practice of undervaluation, must be abandoned. To this end the members of this commission will cheerfully aid and assist assessing officers so far as lies in our power."

The commission calls the attention of assessors to the law requiring land and buildings thereon to be assessed separately. The assessors are urged to view and inspect property in order to determine values correctly. Assessors should not try to shift their responsibility upon boards of review.

In assessing personal property it is more important says the commission, that it be assessed to the proper person than in the case of real estate. There is no lien for a personal property tax. It is mere personal demand and if charged the wrong person would not be enforceable.

ADD MANY NAMES TO PENSION ROLL

The Increase During the Last Eleven Months of the Present Fiscal Year Was 43,399.

Washington, June 4.—In speaking of the work of the Pension bureau in the eleven months of the current fiscal year, Commissioner Evans said today the number of names added to the pension rolls during that period was 43,399, and that at the end of the year there would be shown a net gain in the number of pensioners.

Of the pensions granted 35,308 were for Mexican, Indian, civil, and war of 1812, and 3,525 for service in the war with Spain. In addition 4,100 names which had been dropped or suspended for various reasons were restored to the rolls. For increases, recertifications, and accrued pensions 50,680 pension certificates were issued, making the total number of certificates issued in the eleven months 94,079.

The number of claims filed on account of the Spanish war is 43,874. Four years ago, at the beginning of Commissioner Evans' term, the adjudication of original pensions was from twenty to thirty months in arrears. He predicts that at the close of the fiscal year, on June 30, the work will be up-to-date, so that just as soon as the evidence in a claim is completed it will go from the pending files for adjudication.

DEFER THE STRIKE ON THE RAILROADS

Machinists Will Confine Their Efforts for a Nine-Hour Day to the Shops.

Toronto, Ont., June 4.—Important plans for conducting the machinists' strike throughout the United States are being formed at the annual convention of the International Association of Machinists which opened here today. It developed that the policy of the labor men is to defer for a time the calling out of the machinists on the railway systems and to concentrate all their energies upon the manufacturing establishments. A date will be set for a general railway strike, however, on all roads that refuse to sign the union agreement.

Referring to the general situation in factories President O'Connell said: "A reduction in the hours of labor has been our hope since the association started. Up to May 1 the number of shops working less than ten hours a day was only 1,870. I am firmly convinced that our nine-hour movement will result in reducing the hours of labor of 150,000 machinists."

Mrs. McKinley Unchanged Washington, June 4.—Mrs. McKinley's condition this morning is unchanged.

TRUTH NOT WANTED IN THE CHURCHES

Lansing, Mich., Clergyman Resigns Pastorale Declaring His Teachings Lost on Congregation.

Lansing, Mich., June 3.—The Rev. E. N. Hunt, rector of St. Paul's Episcopal Church, has resigned his pastorate and announced his withdrawal from the ministry for the reason "that a minister cannot preach a modest amount of truth without being cursed to his face." He says that the conservative element in the church will not permit of the preaching of religious truths, as they are now commonly accepted by modern thinkers and students. Mr. Hunt declares that it is a question of retreat for the church. The church is retreating, but not rapidly enough.

WARDEN OVERBECK SHORT OF MONEY

Fish and Game Warden Will Not Be Able to Keep Many Deputies at Work.

Madison, Wis., June 4.—State Fish and Game Warden Henry Overbeck discovered today that owing to a lack of funds he will be able to keep only seven or eight deputies at work from now until September. The law authorizes him to appoint two deputies for each congressional district or twenty-two in all. The pay of a deputy is $3.50 a day and expenses. The new appropriation for deputies he says, will not be available until September, and the $3,000 now in the fund will only be enough to pay the per diem and expenses of eight deputies now in field until that time. He has been fairly overwhelmed with applications for the twenty-two deputships.

SENATOR M'LAURIN WILL NOT RESIGN

Withdraws His Resignation and Will Hold His Seat for the Sake of Peace.

Columbia, S. C., June 4.—Governor McSweeney has received the following letter from Senator McLaurin: "Your letter of May 31 in which you decline to accept my resignation as United States senator is received. The grounds upon which your declination is predicated are that the people are entitled to 'one year of peace and freedom from political battles and bitterness,' and that a campaign this year will be a calamity to the state to be torn assunder by a hastened canvass in the off-year of politics without any possible good come to it. As an additional reason you suggest that any disturbance of the harmony of the people in their work for the advancement of the material prosperity of the state might result in retarding their progress.

"I appreciate fully the force of the reasons given by you and the effect upon the people of the state of a heated and strife producing contest for United States senator this year. For the sake of the peace, prosperity and happiness of the people of this state, I am willing to hold on to my commission as United States senator and to continue to serve the state as I have done in the past, to the best of my ability."

P. L. Myers left last night for a week's visit at Hudson, Wis.

HERRON IS SURE TO BE EXPELLED

Trial at Congregational Council at Grinnell Began Today.

Grinnell, Iowa, June 4.—This morning at 11 o'clock Professor George D. Herron was placed on trial before a jury of his coreligionists on the charge of conduct inconsistent with Christian character.

WILL NOT APPEAR

The Hearing Will Be Confined to Only Charges of Personal Infamy.

NO DOGMA QUESTIONS

It will be the final and supreme effort of the community to wipe out what it regards as a great social and religious stain. The council of Congregational churches, which is the jury in the case, is fiercely antagonistic to Prof. Herron and his mode of life.

The trial is to be in no sense controversial. It is to have no bearing upon theological or denominational dogmas. On the contrary it will avoid such topics and deal with the accused upon the charges of personal infamy that are believed to underlie his desertion of his wife and children, his selfishness and lust, his personal obliquities and the scandals of his private life.

No Friends in Grinnell It is impossible to mention the name of Herron in Grinnell today without evoking from all classes of people, terms of the most unequivocal abuse and condemnation. They recite with fine scorn, the story of his trip to Europe with Miss Rand and her mother, while his wife and four beautiful children remained at home with no resources but the bounty of the woman who was parading Professor Herron through the show places of the old world.

They sneer at him as they recall the facts that the grocery, butcher and dry goods bills of his wife were for years paid by Miss Rand. Preachers, professors and laymen here care nothing for Prof. Herron's so-called "advanced views." They are talking about his wife and daughter as models of their sex, ornaments to the community and martyrs to his selfishness.

In response to the invitation of the congregational association to appear at the trial and defend himself Professor Herron has sent a brief, defiant refusal.

The Congregational council which will try Prof. Herron is made up of the pastor and one delegate from thirteen of the Congregational churches adjoining the Grinnell district.

Likely To Be Expelled

This body acting in the capacity of a grand jury will convict or exonerate Professor Herron of the charges of "conduct inconsistent with Christian character." Upon their findings Professor Herron will either remain a member of the Grinnell Congregation or he will be dishonorably dismissed from both church and ministry.

The consensus of opinion today is that Professor Herron will be ignominiously expelled from the congregation at the Grinnell church, and also from the ministry of which he is yet an accredited clergyman.

TO INCORPORATE MILTON JUNCTION

The question of whether or not Milton Junction will be incorporated is being decided today by Judge Dunwiddle. The court has to pass on certain questions regarding the population and area. If he finds that the population and area come up to the required standard he will order that the question be submitted to a vote of the people. If the proposition is carried when put to a vote they can incorporate under the statute. E. D. McGowan appears for those in favor of incorporating and John Cunningham and Charles E. Pierce for those against it.

STUDY ART IN PUBLIC SCHOOLS

IT IS VALUABLE FOR THE MENTAL TRAINING GIVEN.

This Department in the Janesville School Has Reached a High Mark Under the Direction of Professor W. F. Gaskins—Develops Some Extraordinary Talent.

It is an actual fact that comparatively few people realize the progressiveness of the public school system and that the exhibitions held during the past year to the people who attended them. Even then many saw only the action and did not understand the real value of the work, the reason why it is done and the part which it plays in the education of the child. Many of the studies are most valuable for the mental training which they give and not for the knowledge is received from them.

Especially is this true of the art course as it is carried on under the direction of W. F. Gaskins, art and music instructor. It is a mistaken idea that the art course is merely to teach pupils to draw, it is to give them the training which the use of the pencil gives unconsciously in a pleasant way. The majority of the pupils may have no artistic talent whatever and may not be able to execute any creditable work but both hand and eye will receive valuable training and the pupil will be awakened to the beauties which he would never see ordinarily.

The work has the highest recommendation of being practical. The drawing in the grades is pursued according to a regular course which covers the work from the first grade to the high school. Thus there is continuous and intelligent progress. The grade work includes practical working plans, such as designs for poultry houses and other simple buildings.

The decorative work is along two lines, representative and constructive. The representative work trains the pupils to estimate distances and recognize the simple and fundamental forms on which objects are based. This work trains both eyes and hand, the eye to receive an accurate idea of distance, proportion color and form and the hand to execute what the eye sees.

The constructive work teaches the pupil the rules of simple objects and the working plans and elevations of simple buildings. The constructive ability is put to the test in the decoration work. The pupils are required to plan surface decorations, such as book-covers and patterns for oil cloth, wall paper and ceilings. The patterns are generally made by combining designs conventionalized from flowers as units. The drawing is done from the natural objects and then the natural drawing is conventionalized.

The art course in the grades includes work with the pencil, pen and ink, charcoal and water color, the latter teaching the use of the brush and the various combination of color. This work is carried on in the High school where the art class meets after school hours, two days each week. Clay modeling is also taken up being especially valuable in the acquiring of manual dexterity. The clay modeling begins first with finger work. This develops the sense of touch and makes it very keen. Then simple tools are used in the modeling.

The students become acquainted with historic ornament and are encouraged to study the good things other men have done and to use their own inventive powers. The work is not only practical but the best ideals are held up before the pupils and a high standard of thought is encouraged. The time given to the work does not take from other studies but the art is made correlative to the other studies and helps them.

Geography, language and history and other studies are made more interesting by illustrations. The pupils are also taught blackboard work so that they can illustrate any thought in a fair manner.

Art helps even in the teaching of such an exact study as arithmetic. Portrait work is also taught, the drawings being made from casts and from life. Action studies are also given the pupils being required to catch sketches of people while in motion. This requires alertness.

The walls of the art room which is splendidly equipped with working material, are decorated with creditable work done by high school pupils. Studies in still objects and life, drawings of models and objects and poster designs are included in the display.

The class is a large one and several members show evidences of unmistakable talent, their work being exceptionally fine. Among this number are Leon Ayres, Harold Hall, Jean Rowell, Charlotte Monat, Flossie McGregor and Josephine Treat.

In the various grades there are pupils whose work has attracted attention and who possess artistic talent.

The fact that the art study brings this talent into prominence is one of its values. An instance of this is found in the case of Edward Timmons who is unusually talented but would probably never have given his talent special training had he not studied with Mr. Gaskins and been encouraged by him to go to the Chicago Art Institute.

Mr. Timmons entered the Art Institute last fall and in less than a year he had done as much work as the ordinary institute does in two, finishing what in high school would be the third years' work and entering the Senior or Life class. His progress has been remarkable.

The equipment of the art room is splendid. The room is 70 feet long and narrow and is the best lighted room in the building for art purposes, the windows being high in the wall. The room is furnished with drawing desks, the tops of which can be adjusted to any angle and the collection of casts is very fine. If anyone is skeptical as to the value of art in the schools, the department is one that will bear the closest investigation.

SHERIFF IS AFTER CREAMERY MEN

Sheriff Maltress is anxious to have an interview with the gentleman who came here some months ago and opened up a business under the name of the Rock River Creamery company.

The gentleman came here and rented the Kastner and Carle warehouse near the Northwestern freight depot. Their business was buying and selling eggs, poultry and butter. For some time they did a rushing business and gave out that they intended starting up a plant for rendering butter that was spoiled and making good creamery butter out of it. They had goods shipped them from different points about the state and also visited the farmers in all directions about town buying produce.

They continued the business until last week, when all the produce was loaded into cars and shipped to market and the proprietors then left for parts unknown.

Sunday evening a merchant from Verona, Wis., arrived in town to see if he could collect an account due him from the creamery company. He could not find the proprietors and the place looked as if it was deserted. He immediately sought out an attorney and had a writ of attachment issued. About this time two grocery firms in the city got onto the fact that all was not right and also sued out attachments. The writs were delivered to Sheriff Maltress, who levied on what was left in the office, which was a table and a few chairs.

There are also numerous other small accounts around the city that the gentlemen have left unpaid and their creditors would like an explanation.

Level Up the Park

Over three hundred loads of soil is being unloaded in the Court House park directly in front of the court house. There is very little soil over the sand and gravel which comes near the surface at this portion of the park and it is almost impossible to get the trees and grass to grow. At the last meeting of the county board it was decided to buy soil enough to level up this portion of the grounds and put it in such condition that the trees and grass will grow.

CONTRACTORS FEAR A GENERAL STRIKE

Local Carpenters and Masons Have Been Real Active Here During the Past Month.

A great deal of uneasiness is felt among the contractors that there may be a strike among the carpenters of the city, employed by them.

There is no inclination among the carpenters to strike just at present as they are all employed at good wages and they are not inclined to strike while the men they have hired out to are in the midst of their contracts.

It may be some months yet before anything is done by the men and even then they will not strike except as a last resort. They are anxious to have nine hours considered a day's work and receive the same pay they are now getting for ten hours.

No doubt the demand will be made to the contractors far enough ahead so that they may know what to expect before taking any new contracts.

This question has been agitated for some time by the members of the union, and they have about decided what their course will be.

MILWAUKEE STREET BRIDGE IS UNSAFE

Large Holes Have Been Repaired in It of Late—Merchants Make Complaint.

Milwaukee street bridge is certainly in bad condition and the city will soon have to build a new bridge. The blocks and planking has rotted away and has been patched and repaired until a great portion of the original covering of the bridge is gone.

The piling and supports under the planking is in such condition that the entire structure shakes when a heavy load passes over it.

Merchants on both sides of the river are complaining about the condition of the structure and demand that the city do something to put it in shape so that it is safe for traffic.

Progressive Euchre a Crime.

Judge Fite or Georgia has ruled that it is a crime to play progressive euchre and he has served notice that he will do all in his power to break up the practice in his state. Playing euchre, for prizes, he declares, is a crime "malum prohibitum" and has got to stop. He has told his personal friends that they must stop the game or suffer the penalty and he has instructed the grand jury to be unrelenting in its investigations, and to return true bills against all persons found playing the prohibited game. He says he can find no legal precedent for suppressing gambling in one form and allowing it to flourish in a different guise.

OLD MINSTREL SHOW BILL

Souvenir of an Entertainment at the Myers Grand, October 16, 1872. Manager P. L. Myers is the proud owner of a souvenir which he highly prizes. It is a bill advertising the "original Georgia Minstrels and brass band" to appear at the Myers Opera House two nights, Wednesday and Thursday, October 16 and 17, 1872. Among the many attractions set forth in glowing language are the four original end men, Billy Kersands, Pete Devonear, Bod Height and Billy Wilson. This is of special interest because Billy Kersands appeared before a Janesville audience a short time ago as one of the end men in Holland & Rusco's negro minstrels. Reserved seats for this stupendous attraction, twenty-nine years ago, were on sale at Moseley's; admission 50 cents; reserved seats, 50 cents; gallery, 25 cents. Charles Callender was the sole proprietor of the great aggregation who "came crowned with laurels of a hundred triumphs in the principal cities of Europe and America." The bill was printed by The Gazette Printing Co. It is as fresh in appearance as though it had just been printed.

PROF. DUDLEY WILL GO INTO INSURANCE

That is the Reason He Was Not Reappointed to His Position at the High School.

There seems to be some misunderstanding over the fact that Prof. George W. Dudley, who has been a member of the high school faculty for the past year was not reappointed by the board of education. It is not generally known that Mr. Dudley decided some time ago to abandon the profession of teaching and enter the life insurance business, and it is but justice to Mr. Dudley to let the public know that he had notified the school board of his intentions before the new appointments were made.

Mr. Dudley was not aware that it was the local custom for the teachers to wait until after appointments for the coming year are made to resign if they do not wish to accept the position offered. It seemed the honorable thing to him to notify the board as soon as he knew that he would not be open to consider a school position and he acted accordingly.

This fact not being generally known some people have misconstrued the action of the board of education to Mr. Dudley's embarrassment. His work in the high school has been especially satisfactory for a young teacher and his co-workers in the high school faculty and the students of the school and the board of education sincerely regret that the school is to lose his services.

Mr. Dudley is to enter the employ of the Northwestern Mutual Life Insurance Company. He will be associated with W. F. McCaughey, having his office in the Hayes block and will remain in this city until the first of August when he will probably be transferred to some other city. Mr. Dudley's many friends will wish him abundant success in his new vocation.

FARM HOUSE BURNS ON SUNDAY NIGHT

On the Place of Stephen Fanning, Three Miles North of Johnstown—Was Insured.

A fire at the farm of Stephen Fanning, three miles north of Johnstown on Sunday night entirely destroyed his house and contents.

The origin of the fire is a mystery but it is supposed to have started from a defective flue. The family were all in bed and were awakened by the smoke and fire and escaped with their lives.

The house and contents were insured in a Rockford company. This is the third fire that Mr. Fanning has had on his farm in two years. The first took the barn and contents and a year ago he lost a threshing machine and a lot of farm implements.

George M. Underhill of Edgerton was the guest of local friends yesterday.

IMPERIAL BAND SNUBBED THE UNION

Rather Than Please the Federated Trades Council They Declined to March in Parade.

Because the Imperial band would not leave out two of its members it was turned down by the labor organizations of the city at the time of the parade last Friday evening.

Arrangements had been made by the labor organizations of the city with the band to have them play for them Friday night. After the negotiations were closed it was discovered by some of the union men that two of the members of the band were non-union men and they refused to march in a procession led by them.

The labor leaders then went to the officers of the Imperial band and stated the proposition to them and told them that they would have to leave the two men that were obnoxious to the unions out of the band if they played for them. The officers of the band met and considered what the labor leaders asked of them and after much talk decided that if the band played for the unions they would do so as a whole and would not leave the members out. The union would not listen to this and hired the Y. M. C. A. band in their place.

The union men say there is no truth in the statement that they hired the Y. M. C. A. band because they could get them for less money. They paid the Y. M. C. A. band just as much per man as the Imperial band asked, only there were not so many men in the band.

AMUSEMENT NOTES.

"Nathan Hale," one of the most beautiful and inspiring plays ever given to the American stage will be presented at the Myers Grand Friday evening, June 14, and will be the closing attraction of the theatrical season. It will be the original production as seen at the Powers theater, Chicago and the Knickerbocker theater, New York, with all the magnificent stage settings and picturesque costuming.

It is an open secret that the part of "Nathan Hale" was one for which the talents of that popular comedian, Nat Goodwin, did not especially fit him, so it is quite possible to believe the press notices in which it is asserted that Howard Kyle, who will play the title role in this city, gives even a more inspiring interpretation of the part than did Mr. Goodwin and the statement bears no flavor of discredit to the original "Nathan Hale."

Those who had the pleasure of seeing the production in Chicago will not hesitate to recommend it in the highest terms. It is a beautiful and noble play with an exquisite story of intermingled love and patriotism, a play of which, Clyde Fitch, the author, may be justly proud.

Charles H. Yale must have had Manager Myers of the Myers Grand under the hypnotic spell of his "Evil Eye" when he convinced him that his production was far better than ever before and forced him into giving a large guarantee for a return engagement of this spectacular surprise. It was the same old story of traveling on former reputation and the production of the "Evil Eye" given at the Myers Grand last evening was a rather tame and unpleasant reminder of former greatness.

Last year the attraction was one of the best of the season at the local play house but those who saw both productions are now inclined to think that last season's success depended largely upon Al. Wilson, the clever German comedian and his pretty wife. Their singing was the great treat of the production.

This year the singing was of very ordinary quality with perhaps Chas. E. Flynn as an exception. Arthur Borani and Thomas Elliot carried off the honors of the evening with their acrobatic work which was very clever. The electrical ballet, the wooden shoe dancing and the instrumental musical specialties were all good but not startling enough to arouse the slightest sign of enthusiasm from the magnificent audience.

It was one of the largest audiences of the season, the theatre being packed. It is rather unfortunate for future attractions that one so extensively advertised and so systematically boomed should prove a disappointment. There have been ranker shows in Janesville, but his one was slow, and, in the slang of the day, "tacky." It was certainly unworthy the dignity of a subscription sale and the fooling of the public is always to be deplored. The fact that the show gave such excellent satisfaction last year and the disappointment of last evening's audience is almost enough to make any one lose all faith in all advance show notices.

Young Girls

Are often engaged in doing the work of a home under the most trying conditions. Nature cries out against the stooping and lifting, the running up and down stairs at times when labor should be as light as possible. It is owing to overstrain or self-neglect under these conditions that the foundation is laid for serious womanly disease. Irregularity is the first step to impaired womanly health.

Perfect regularity may be established by the use of Dr. Pierce's Favorite Prescription. It will heal inflammation and ulceration and cure female weakness. It makes weak women strong and sick women well. "It gives me much pleasure," writes Miss Ella Sapp, of Jamestown, Guilford County, N. C., "to thank Dr. Pierce for the great good received from the use of his 'Favorite Prescription' and 'Golden Medical Discovery.' I had suffered for three years or more at monthly periods. It seemed as though I would die with pains in my back and stomach. I could not stand at all without fainting. Had given up all hope of ever being cured, when one of my friends insisted upon my trying Dr. Pierce's Favorite Prescription. With but little faith I tried it, and before I had taken half a bottle I felt better. Now I have taken two bottles of 'Favorite Prescription' and one of 'Golden Medical Discovery,' and I am entirely cured, and in two months' time when all other medicines had failed."

THE AMERICAN BOY.

Sir Thomas Lipton, the great Irish tea merchant, and yachtsman, has a good word for the American boy, and says that he is the peer of his English cousin in point of ability. Mr. Lipton has made a study of young men on both sides of the water, and being eminently successful himself, will be considered good authority.

He claims that the English boy is brought up too much like a housewife, and that he lacks the rough and tumble experience of life that contributes so largely to the success of the American boys. Then he asserts that the United States, with its rapidly developing resources, possesses opportunities that the old world is deprived of.

He thinks that the great university of life turns out more practical men in this country, than in England, and says that class distinctions are not recognized here as they are abroad. The aristocracy of America is the aristocracy of merit and ability, and wealth and blue blood does not enter into it.

The boy who is privileged to live in this country and develop in its helpful atmosphere, has occasion to thank God for the good fortune that gave him the privilege. If there is any land under the sun where the avenues to successful life are abundant, it is this free land where Nature responds so freely and so abundantly to the touch of industry, and where ability in every line of work is in constant demand.

If there is any land, anywhere, where the prizes of life are within the grasp of the masses, it is this land, so eagerly welcomed by our adopted offspring that flock to us like a great army, from foreign lands, every year.

There is something wrong with the American boy, who possesses health and intelligence, if he does not win. He may not become a great orator, a great lawyer, a great financier, as greatness is usually regarded. But he may become master of himself and master of any honorable calling that he may choose, and attain success.

The man who sits in the cab, night after night, with a steady hand on the lever, whirling the train through the darkness at sixty miles an hour, is just as successful as the man behind him, asleep in his private car, and he may possess a great deal more contentment and happiness.

The measure of success is determined in the accomplishment of a purpose, and Sir Thomas Lipton is right when he says that American boys come nearer the ideal goal, than any other class. The appreciation of American life is strong, and should be more thoroughly cultivated. It is a good thing to be well born, but many birthright inequalities are evened up by American opportunities, that know no favorites.

STREET CAR FENDERS.

The shocking accident to poor little Clarence Babcock, ought to convince every citizen of the necessity of providing every precaution against a possible recurrence of the same.

It ought to convince the Street Railway company none the less than the citizen, that to say nothing of the irreparable loss to dear ones, it is cheaper in dollars and cents for them to equip their cars with accident preventing appliances.

Suppose the motorman should be found responsible for the loss of a limb, the company would inevitably be compelled to pay damages in that one case, which would buy fenders enough to equip a much larger railway.

If the railway company cannot see it to their own advantage to purchase such appliances, then the citizens should make the company realize that they have interest at stake every time a car passes their streets, and these interests all must respect.

In regard to the particular fender to be recommended, there can be but one opinion and that is that the fender should be down ALL the time.

There is but little safety promised when the fender has to be placed in position for use after the motorman sees the danger. No man could have possibly turned off the current, put on the brake and drop a fender in position in time to save little Clarence Babcock. But if a fender had been down in position the car with a blind motorman, would not have injured the little boy, much less killed him.

Let this terrible accident be the reason for railway company and citizen to lose no time in providing safety appliances, and in seeing to it that they are in position to rescue lives at all times.

SCIENCE AND PHILANTHROPY.

The field of science, where men and women toil with untiring devotion, is usually recognized as a philanthropic field, and many of the discoveries wrought out will continue to bless humanity for time to come.

It is gratifying to know that John D. Rockefeller, in many respects the greatest American of his generation, is just turning his attention to this important work, and has already made his first investment for the establishment of an institution to be known as the "Rockefeller Institute for Medical Research," to take rank with similar institutions in Paris and Berlin.

This field of such great importance, and so long neglected in this country, is a promising field, and the results will be watched with unusual interest.

One of the first reforms attempted will be the pure milk and food test, applied to New York City, and later to all the large cities of the country. It has been demonstrated that tubercular, and other diseases that baffle the skill of the physician, will be another branch of work, and the result of every research will be given to the world, to aid in checking disease and prolonging life.

This philanthropic institution will be richly endowed by Mr. Rockefeller and will be accessible to American boys who have frequently found it necessary to go abroad to complete a course of study.

It will be a monument to the name of the founder, long after he has gone, and will prove a great blessing to suffering humanity.

WHO IS HONEST?
Mrs. Nancy B. Irving, a Chicago authoress and publisher, has just completed a book, which is now in type, entitled, "Who Lies." She maintains that all men are liars, and has deposited $1,000 in a Chicago bank, which she offers to the first professional or business man, who will prove that he has lived a strictly honest life for a month.

Mrs. Irving says that it is impossible to transact any kind of business for a given length of time, and be absolutely honest, and her book is devoted to various classes of work to prove her assertion.

However honest the lady may be in her belief, it is safe to say that she is a remarkably shrewd advertiser, and that her book will be in demand as soon as ready for the market.

The public generally will not endorse Mrs. Irving's peculiar ideas of honesty, for the general belief is, that a large majority of manhood is honest, and that honesty in any honorable calling is necessary to permanent success.

There is a difference between honesty and over-consciousness. It is possible for a man to make a fool of himself by parading his honesty of conviction on all topics, both in and out of season. This is being done every day in the week by the modern reformer, whose honesty is seldom questioned, and whose influence is generally wasted, because that sort of misdirected honesty borders on fanaticism.

Mrs. Irving has doubtless written a readable story, true to life from an over-sensitive standpoint. She claims that her object is not to satisfy an ambition for money, but to incite people to be honest as she looks at life from her point of view. If she succeeds to any large extent, the crop of cranks will be more prolific, and the gospel of common sense will receive a setback.

Crosby said when arrested: "I guess it's all up now."

HE PLAYED GOLF ON SUNDAY.

Prominent Yonkers (N. Y.) Man Placed Under Arrest.

New York, June 4.—Yonkers, N. Y., police have arrested Benjamin Adams, a member of the board of education of that place, on the charge of playing golf on Sunday. The Sunday blue law crusade began several weeks ago and has been pushed by one side and opposed by another with fierce energy. It was originally started to stop Sunday baseball playing. A petition to the police commissioners signed by Yonkers clergymen calling for a strict enforcement of the Sunday laws was recently presented. The commissioners ordered the chief of police to enforce the laws impartially, declaring that golf playing on Sunday was as much a crime as baseball. Fearing trouble, the members of the golf club posted lookouts about their grounds, but as no effort was made by the police to interfere with them, they supposed that they would be exempt from arrest. Signing the petition by the ministers provoked a storm of indignation in several congregations. Many church members prominent in the affairs of the town served notice on their pastors that they would sever their connection with their churches unless the ministers withdrew their signatures.

Maniac Loose in Vatican.

Rome, June 4.—While the pope was in his private room today a maniac made his way to the ante-room and shouted: "The pope is dead—I am his successor; give me the crown." GROWTH OF INDEPENDENT COMPANIES IN THIS STATE.

Semi-Annual Convention of the Independent Lines Will Be Held at La Crosse June 26 and 27—Richard Valentine Will Represent the Rock County Line.

The date for the semi-annual convention of the Wisconsin Independent Telephone association has been set for June 26 and 27 at La Crosse, and important business will come up. Seventy-five delegates are expected from all parts of the state covered by telephone companies. Plans will be made for the construction of a through telephone line between La Crosse and Milwaukee, and a movement to connect all independent lines between the two cities will be considered.

Richard Valentine, secretary and treasurer of the Rock County Telephone company and a member of the executive committee from the First District, will attend the convention from this city. The growth of the independent telephone companies throughout the state during the last two years has been remarkable. Two years ago there were very few companies in the state and now there are 147 companies located at different points from Green Bay on the east to Hudson and LaCrosse on the west and from Beloit on the south to Tomahawk on the north.

Over 75 per cent. of the independent companies throughout the state are members of the Independent association. It is expected that the membership of the association will be largely increased at the coming meeting.

The state is almost a complete network of telephone wires when the toll lines of the Independent and Bell companies are considered. Very few people have any idea of the immense number of phones in use throughout the state. In the counties of Rock, Jefferson and Green, Walworth and Dane, there are about twelve thousand phones now in use owned by the Independent companies. This shows the popularity of the phone and what an immense number must be in use throughout the state. The Rock County company of this city now has nearly eight hundred phones in use and applications are being made daily by people who desire phones put in.

WALWORTH COUNTY PIONEER IS DEAD

D. C. Porter Passed Away at Home of His Son at Fontana On Monday Morning Last.

D. C. Porter, a pioneer settler of Walworth county and very well known in this city, passed peacefully away at the home of his son, Lester Porter, at Fontana, Monday morning at seven o'clock aged 86 years. Mr. Porter was especially well-known to the Janesville people who camp at Glenwood Springs, Lake Geneva. He was a genial and kind hearted man, a splendid companion for young people or those of mature age and a gentleman in every sense of the word from his kindly courtesy to his strict integrity. He retained his faculties and activity and enjoyed life keenly.

Mr. Porter was a native of Vermont and was born on September 16, 1815. He came to Wisconsin in the late thirties when Indians were still plentiful and took up a claim of government land in Walworth, near Geneva lake. The first house he built was a log hut, located between Glenwood and Harvard Park. Later he moved onto a farm south of the lake where he resided until 1876 when he moved to Fontana to make his home on the shore of the lake that was destined to become so famous a summer resort. His wife, whose maiden name was Nancy Hanchett, died in February 1888 and since that time Mr. Porter has made his home with his children, spending the greater part of his time with his son David. He leaves two daughters, Mrs. Stevenson of Kansas and Mrs. Doris Porter and William Porter, who reside in Kansas, Lester Porter of Walworth and David Porter of St. Joseph, Mo.

Their sorrow will be shared by many people in this city. Among Mr. Porter's intimate friends are Mr. and Mrs. Eli Leavitt, who camped on his grounds for seventeen years, spending their first summer at the lake in 1877 and on removing their camp to Glenwood when Mr. Porter sold his property. Mr. and Mrs. Leavitt will attend the funeral which will be held from Lester Porter's home at Fontana, tomorrow afternoon at one o'clock.

J. C. Wetmore Dead

J. C. Wetmore of Whitewater died last night at ten o'clock at his home at the age of forty-eight years. He was a brother of Fred S. Wetmore of this city and F. H. Wetmore of Emerald Grove and G. E. Wetmore of the same place. Another brother, R. G. Wetmore of West Union, Ia., also survives him. Mr. Wetmore was born and raised to manhood in the town of Johnston and left there some twenty years ago for Whitewater where he has since resided. The funeral services will be held from the residence at Whitewater, Thursday at 1 o'clock p. m.

DURABLE BRICK WALKS.

B. P. Crossman and men were today busily engaged in placing a brick walk in front of the stores occupied by Richter Bros. and Moses Bros. During the past year Mr. Crossman has constructed many of these brick walks in Janesville. The brick walk is not only durable but it can be constructed at little cost and can be replaced on short notice, and at small cost. In the residence portion of the city brick is also being substituted for the board walk. Mr. Crossman also makes a specialty of cement walks having this week placed one at the corner of Maiden and West Bluff streets. In a few years from now the indications are board walks in Janesville will be as scarce, as cement and brick are fast taking their place.

ACTRESS SLAIN IN CHICAGO

The Murderer Is Captured After a Hard Chase.

COUPLE HAD LIVED TOGETHER.

Woman's Slaying Is Her Common-Law Husband—Killed in Parlor of Hotel—Man Contemplates Suicide, but Nerve Fails Him.

Chicago, June 4.—"Darling Mother, Sister, and All: This is the last time I will ever drop my darling ones a line. Mother, I know the blow will almost kill you, but you must forgive your only boy." Thus Edward Forsay, an actor, wrote to the folks at home yesterday. Last night he killed Edna May Stokes, an actress, at the Vernon hotel, No. 102 Randolph street. He had not the nerve to end his own life as he intended, but sought to escape. A 16-year-old boy captured him. The couple had been living together for years, but recently the woman had left Forsay, and this was the cause of the crime. The two had boarded at the Dale hotel up to three weeks ago, when Mrs. Forsay as she was known, left and went to the Vernon hotel. The tragedy took place about 7:45 o'clock. Forsay had called three times during the day and inquired for the woman, but she was absent. Last night he called again and the actress was informed that he was in the parlor. She came down stairs to meet him, and almost as soon as she entered the room two shots were fired at her by Forsay. The first struck her in the left breast and passed through the body. The second missed her. She staggered out of the room, and fell in the hallway, and was dead when the matron of the house reached her side. Forsay at once ran from the house, followed by some of the inmates. He ran east to Dearborn street, south to Calhoun place, and through that alley to Clark street, and then north to the court house, where James Hein, a 16-year-old boy, who had outrun him, jumped on his back and held him until the police arrived.

The woman who was killed came originally from Sedalia, Mo. Forsay is a resident of Kansas City, where his mother lives. The pair met in St. Louis seven years ago, and had been living together ever since. He was insanely jealous, and during the last year the two had had frequent quarrels. Miss Stokes had no regular engagement for some months. Forsay was employed at the Victoria theater up to the time that Manager McGinty left town without paying the company. Since then he has been idle.

Troy, N. Y., June 4.—Ida Epstein, the 5-year-old daughter of Louis Epstein, was burned to death in a fire which burned out the second floor of an apartment flat on King street. The loss of property is small. The manner in which the fire started is not known.

BRUTE ATTACKS AGED WOMAN.

Victim, Holding Baby in Arms, Is Fatally Hurt by Negro Thief.

Kansas City, June 4.—Mrs. Mary Schuler, 70 years old, while rocking a baby in her house at Second street and Woodland avenue in the afternoon, was struck down with a hatchet by a negro. The shockingly brutal crime was committed to clear the way for the theft of a few trinkets and bits of silver that lay about the humble home, of which the woman and child were the only occupants. Mrs. Schuler's skull was fractured and she cannot live. Scores of men living in the poor district in the east bottoms, where the attack was made, are hunting for the negro, and if he is caught he is sure to be roughly handled. Half a dozen arrests have been made, but none of the suspects has been identified.

Baltimore, Md., June 4.—At a meeting of the trustees of Johns Hopkins university Ira Remsen, Ph. D., LL. D., professor of chemistry in the Johns Hopkins university since 1876, was elected president of the university, succeeding Dr. Daniel C. Gilman, who resigned. United States and Russia Stand Together in China.

Washington, June 4.—Neither Russia nor the United States will detail troops to garrison the posts to be established by the powers between Taku and Peking. Russia's determination to refrain from maintaining troops upon the territory of a neighboring empire is another indication of her purpose to pursue to the end the policy which she originally adopted.

This policy is absolutely in line with that of the United States, and, in fact, from what can be learned, it is the intention of Russia to act with this government in future questions discussed in Peking. This attitude has given the administration much satisfaction. The points between Taku and Peking which will be garrisoned by the powers, ostensibly to maintain a safe egress for the foreign ministers in the capital, have not been finally determined, though it seems to be understood that troops will be stationed at Yang Tsung and at one other point near Tientsin. The size of the garrisons also remains to be established.

Mrs. N. J. Casey, of 101 Prairie Ave. says: "Doan's Kidney Pills proved better than any other medicine I took for my kidneys. These organs troubled me off and on for some years. Backache was the chief symptom and often caused me to suffer severely. I tried a number of remedies but continued to grow worse instead of better. I was finally persuaded to try Doan's Kidney Pills and procured a box at the People's Drug store. I only took them a few days when I felt better. Should there be any recurrence of my trouble I now know what to use."

Quaker Tonic Tablets

Cure Constipation.

Constipation is a natural result of a weakened liver. Bile, which it is the work of the liver to produce, and which is made to carry the waste of the body, isn't created if the liver is weakened. When the bile is poured into the intestines they act regularly. When it isn't, constipation results immediately. For this weakened liver—hence constipation—in all the world no cure so sure as Dr. Crane's Quaker Tonic Tablets.

50 cents a box. $2.50 for six boxes.

If your druggist don't sell Quaker Tonic, write PENN DRUG COMPANY, Oshkosh, Wis.

A sample of Quaker Tonic Tablets and an illustrated booklet, "Quaker Tonic Truths," will be mailed free upon application.

POND'S EXTRACT

There is only ONE POND'S EXTRACT, and everybody knows its purity, strength and great medicinal value. Don't take the weak, watery Witch Hazel preparations represented to be "the same as" POND'S EXTRACT. They generally contain "wood alcohol," which irritates the skin, and, taken internally, is a deadly poison. Get genuine POND'S EXTRACT, sold ONLY in SEALED bottles, in BUFF wrappers.

Gentlemen—
I enclose you contract for the supply of coffee for the Bailey Catering Company, at the Pan-American Exposition, to be held in Buffalo during the coming summer. In the selection of your coffee, in competition with samples submitted by a number of the largest Importers and Roasters in the country, I have been governed entirely by the quality of the same. My experience with the coffee supplied to me during the past year or so by your house has been so uniformly satisfactory that I feel that I could do no better than to complete this arrangement with you. The amount of coffee which this involves will probably amount to as much or more than has ever been supplied to one consumer in the same length of time, and I congratulate you upon your enterprise in having secured this contract.

Very truly,

In Janesville and vicinity we are exclusive agents for the Pan-American Blend. We are now prepared to fill orders. Phone us.

This village will have a twentieth century Fourth of July celebration and a general invitation is extended to the public to attend. The people of adjacent towns are especially invited and will receive a warm welcome. The celebration is not gotten up as a money maker, but the funds are contributed by the citizens and business men for the purpose of furnishing an enjoyable day at home for themselves and their families. The rich and the poor, the young and the old, from out of town, will be welcome guests and are not expected to contribute. There is room in the park for all. Bring your lunch basket and have a jolly good time. There will be band music all day, games, baseball and fireworks.

Are Not Always Fine Carriages.

There's probably more humbuggery in carriage manufacture than in a great many other things one has to buy. Paint and putty will cover a multitude of imperfections.

The only safe way in buying carriages is to go to the deal whom you know to be reliable, or has a reputation for reliability. He must retain his reputation by handling reliable goods.

ON TRIAL FOR HER LIFE.

Mrs. Lulu Kennedy Arraigned for Killing Her Husband.

Kansas City, Mo., June 4.—Mrs. Lulu Kennedy, the bride of a month who has been in the county jail since Jan. 10 last, held under indictment for murder in the first degree for deliberately killing her husband, Philip H. Kennedy, contracting agent of the Merchants' Dispatch Transportation company, was brought to trial in the Criminal court here today. The woman's father, C. W. Prince, proprietor of a billiard hall; Albert Prince, a traveling musician, who has circled the globe on a concert tour, and William Prince, a young business man, will be tried later on a charge of conspiring with Mrs. Kennedy to kill her husband. The father and Albert Prince are out on bond, while William Prince is in jail, his relatives' canvass for bail having proved unsuccessful.

Case Is Sensational.

The case is one of the most unusual in local criminal history and sensations are promised by the state. Both the Kennedy and Prince families have lived in Kansas City for years, the Kennedys being prominent in social and business circles. Philip H. Kennedy was 28 years old. He had known Lulu Prince for a year and in that time had paid her some attention. In December they were married at the court house by a local judge. Kennedy refused to live with his wife and in a month brought suit to have the marriage annulled, alleging duress. He charged that the woman's father and brother William compelled him at the point of revolvers to go before the judge and be married, threatening him with death if he demurred.

Called Out and Shot.

A few days after the suit was filed, on Jan. 10, at 5:30 in the evening, Mrs. Kennedy appeared at her husband's office in the Ridge building and calling him into the hall shot him five times, killing him instantly and kicking his prostrate body. Kennedy's brother tried to disarm the woman and while doing so was struck down by William Prince. The latter's presence in the building and the movements in the vicinity of the Princes that day led to their arrest on charges of being accomplices in a conspiracy to kill Kennedy.

No Remorse Shown.

During her five months' confinement in jail Mrs. Kennedy, who is only 20 years old, has shown no remorse for her crime and has frequently enjoyed concerts given in her cell by her musician brother. Each side has worked up its case carefully, the state having summoned 125 witnesses and the defense nearly that number. Last night, for the first time since her daughter has been in jail, Mrs. Prince visited her. She talked coolly of her coming trial.

Mrs. J. F. Pember and daughter are visiting friends in Milwaukee.
